FACES OF THE COAST

JON HAUGE/Staff Photographer

Cindy LeBlanc

Cindy LeBlanc has lived in Ocean Springs most of her life. She has recently started to work for Caboose Cones, working one of the portable Hawaiian Ice Snow Cone beverage trailers situated on the Ocean Springs Beach. LeBlanc said, "I have multiple sclerosis and having this job is like therapy. I work part time, but this gets me out of the house." Having MS limits what she can do, she said, but she enjoys fishing, boating and going to the beach. LeBlanc has two grown daughters, one of whom is attending college overseas.

LeBLANC

Jerry Joseph LeBlanc, 68, of Moss Point Miss., born Oct. 21, 1933, in Biloxi, Miss., died September 11, 2002, in Pascagoula, Miss.

A year ago today there were many tears in Heaven, many were taken too early for their time. Today, Heaven is rejoicing, there is joy all around. For today a great man joined them. The man that we called Dad.

Mr. LeBlanc was a lifelong resident of the Gulf Coast. He was a member of St. Josephs Catholic Church in Moss Point.
